

The Little Mouse Who Went to See the World

Text by Sándor Kányádi Illustrations by Viki Bogdán

Sándor Kányádi is a great storyteller from the 20th century mixing wonderful elements with folk motives in his poems and stories for kids. In this book little wild mouse from the meadow has enough of the autumn rain and hunger and decides to travel to the village. If he knew that he will not be warmly welcomed there...

Hardcover, 195x215 mm, 104 pp

6-9 years
Classic

Further titles coming soon!

The Girl with Blue Hair
by Péter Dóka
Illustrations by István Lakatos
Oliver falls off a tree and meets Mira in the hospital. There, in a world full of secrets and suspense, a special bond develops between them.

White
Raven prize

8 further titles from the author

Kiss bandits by Balázs Vigh
Illustrations by Blanka Radnóti
A sweet story about pirates, princesses and a quintal of kisses...

6 further titles from the author

Shortlisted for Children Book
of the Year

Wonderbug by Judit Ágnes
Illustrations by Blanka Radnóti
Sophie is different and, with a little help, she learns how to overcome her fears

6-9 years
Contemporary

Books of István Fekete

István Fekete knew a great deal about nature and always strove to pass on his knowledge to young readers through his novels.

Text by István Fekete Series design by Viki Hitka

His most renowned novel VUK is about a foxcub, losing his parents then growing-up in the woods learning to survive. The story of VUK was even made into an animated movie in the 80's in Hungary and the character is still very popular. He also captured the life of other animals such as storks, owls, otters...

Various
titles sold to 3
languages

New, softcover editions

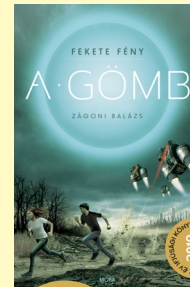

9 further titles from the author

8-11 years
Classic

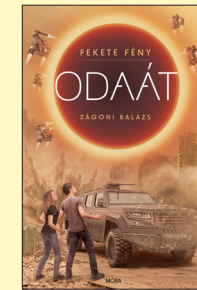

Black Light series The Sphere / The Other Side

Text by Balázs Zágoni Cover design by Bea Papp

The EU is over, former countries are fallen apart into city-states. The society is based on indentured servitude and you can inherit even debts from your parents. The only way out is to join one of the colonies outside the city walls...

Book
of the Year 2019

Softcover, 138x198 mm, 360/392 pp

1 further title from the author

10+ years
Contemporary

classic tales • fantastic storytelling senzitation • different • relations nature • animals • adventure

sci-fi • dystopia

MÓRA PUBLISHING HOUSE

HUNGARY

Contact:
katalin.vas@mora.hu
www.mora.hu

Baby Geometry

Design by Dia Nagy

Four books for small babies (age 2–12 months) with high contrast black and white graphics, organic lines, shapes, rhythms, patterns by a designer with special taste and with lots of knowledge on what kind of books babies are really crazy for.

LEPORELLOS

142x146 mm,
14 pp

BOARD BOOKS

142x146 mm,
14 pp

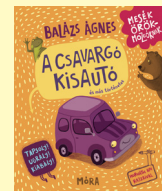

0-12 months
Contemporary

Tales for Snappy Kids series

Text by Ágnes Balázs

Illustrations by Ildi Horváth

Instead of trying to regulate kids with strict rules these books give the parents / teachers the possibility to give the children small and fun tasks while listening to the stories. They can (sometimes have to) jump, clap, shout during the story and their concentrating skills are developing in the meantime.

5 titles,
hardcover, 165x204 mm,
56 pp

New title in 2023!

3-5 years
Contemporary

Books of Éva Janikovszky

Éva Janikovszky is one of the most known, award-winning childrens' authors of the 20th Century in Hungary. Her unique voice, humor and the kids' point of view in her books is loved by kids and adults, as well.

At School at Last

Illustrations by László Réber

The first day at school – is it fun?

Various
titles sold to 36
languages

Something's Always Happening to Me

Illustrations by László Réber

„When Dad says 'Come young man, I want a word with you' you can bet something is wrong...”

Me and the Mirror

Illustrations by Tibor Kárpáti

Monologue of a teenage boy in front of the mirror

16 further titles from the author

4-6 years
Classic

Books of Csenge Zalka

Zalka Csenge is a modern storyteller knowing and telling folktales from around the world in 3 languages

Text by Csenge Zalka

Illustrations by László Herbszt

These books (of Hungarian, international and almost forgotten folk tales) are evidences that folk tales are not old, boring stories but exciting adventures with questions and conclusions still valid today.

Book
of the Year 2020

Hardcover, geltex, 165x236 mm, 208/240 pp

2 further titles from the author

6-9 years
Contemporary

Books of Ervin Lázár

His wonderful, creative, innovative, humorous and often philosophical storytelling made Ervin Lázár one of the most important and loved childrens' author in Hungary. He won several awards for his literary works.

Arnica the Duck Princess

A charming and funny tale about love, friendship, and what happens when a witch turns your fiancé into a duck.

Illustrated by Jacqueline Molnár

The Seven-Headed Fairy

The author's most popular fairy tale collection is an incessant play with words and genres. The lyrical, dreamlike images are combined with humor.

Illustrated by Jacqueline Molnár

The Square-Around Forest

Are you also visited often by Sadness? Then off you go to the Square Around Forest, where it has no power!

Illustrated
by László Réber

Various
titles sold to several languages

9 further titles from the author

6-9 years
Classic

focus • baby development storytelling • activation • focus humor • family matters • growing up folk tales • modern voice creative universe • sensitization • relations